NSW Ref	*Initiative Title	Short description of Initiative	Output/s addressed (refer to Clause 10 of NP)	Name of Service Provider/s	In scope for SHSC – Yes/No	Seeking Exemption – Yes/No	Exemption Granted by Commonwealth	Requirement for SHSC exempt services and services not in scope: Estimated yearly number of clients to be assisted by service	LGA/s or FACS district covered by project
7.63	New Housing & Support for Homeless People who drift into the Inner City (Connect 100)	Connect 100's objective is to help reduce the number of homeless people who come to the inner city by helping them stay in or near their communities where they have a greater prospect of reconnecting with family or social networks if safe and appropriate, and where accommodation may be cheaper. Connect 100 will provide services to 100 homeless people through: private rental accommodation leased and managed by community housing providers in suburban and regional locations; and, support by specialist homelessness services and other support services as required.	10A, B, C, D, G, H & J	NSW Department of Family and Community Services	Yes	No	N/A	N/A	South Eastern Sydney
7.62	Support for unaccompanied Homeless Children and Young People under 16 years (HYAP)	The HYAP will provide individualised supports linked to accommodation with the aim of reunifying children with their families and broader support networks or to enable them to transition to independence. Individualised support packages will include family support and mediation, accommodation assistance, specialist health services, mentoring and conflict resolution.	10D, I, J & L	NSW Department of Family and Community Services	Yes	No	N/A	N/A	Statewide
15.2	District Implementation, Reform Consolidation and Program Management	Critical to the implementation of the NPAH to date and the Going Home Staying Home reforms has been the development and ongoing implementation of Regional Homelessness Action Plans by local Committees, comprising key specialist homelessness NGO service providers as well as other key NGO and government agencies within the homelessness service system. These local planning and coordination processes have played a key role in providing input into the reforms and improving service responses to prevent and reduce homelessness. As part of the ongoing implementation of the NPAH and the GSHS reforms new District Homelessness Implementation Committees are being established. These Committees prioritise the consolidation of the reforms, the implementation of the NPAH client service delivery and supporting the new SHS funded services and other strategic initiatives to address homelessness. Program management and performance monitoring will also be undertaken.	10E & K	NSW Department of Family and Community Services	No	Yes	Yes	N/A	Statewide

The Service will develop partnerships with other SHS in the inner city of Sydney and surrounding areas that respond to clients to strengthen integrated and specialised service approaches and facilitate Housing First approaches. A particular emphasis will be on strengthening links with the Inner City Assertive Outreach Service, Rapid Response Service and other services in the inner city and beyond to improve outcomes for clients.	10A, B, C, D, F, G, I, & L	Haymarket Foundation	Yes	No	N/A	N/A	South Eastern Sydney
1.1	Tenancy Advice and Advocacy Program (TAAP)	The Tenancy Advice and Advocacy Program provides funding to non profit organisations to provide information, community education, advice and advocacy services to public and private tenants in NSW. This is a key service in ensuring that clients at risk of homelessness are able to access the advice they need to sustain their tenancies.	10 A, B, C, E, F, G & L	Office of Fair Trading NSW	no	yes	yes	25000	Statewide
2.13	Disability Housing and Support Initiative (DHASI)	This project provides housing and support to clients with a disability to assist them to sustain their tenancies and participate in their communities. The project is for people aged 18-65 years who have been assessed as having an intellectual disability and are able to function within a community based setting with a maximum of 35 hours drop-in support per week.	10E, A & G	NSW Department of Family and Community Services	no	yes	yes	50	Statewide
2.13b	Disability Housing and Support Initiative 2 (DHASI 2)	DHASI 2 aims to deliver 125 housing and support packages. The target group for DHASI 2 are individuals not requiring 24/7 support, and who have been assessed as eligible for priority social housing assistance by the NSW Department of Family and Community Services or a community housing provider participating in Housing Pathways.	10E, A & G	NSW Department of Family and Community Services	no	yes	yes	93	Statewide
2.16	Bail Assistance Line (Transition Program from Aboriginal Young People)	The Bail Assistance Line (BAL) is a service operated by Juvenile Justice that coordinates a range of accommodation and support to enable young people to access and successfully complete bail periods, promote positive community re-integration of young people leaving custody, and assist those on community based orders who become homeless and are at risk of entering custody. The project also addresses issues related to bail refusal which are often linked to accommodation. The service involves the identification of clients, case management and referral of clients for housing and support.	10B, C, D, E, G, I, & J	Juvenile Justice	no	yes	yes	21	Statewide
4.3	Enhance Financial Counselling Services Program	This state-wide program aims to prevent homelessness by providing financial advice, advocacy and other services to assist people in financial difficulties. Funding is allocated to non-profit organisations for: free-of-charge accredited financial counselling and consumer legal casework services; training in financial counselling, community education in personal finance, debt and credit management; and central support services for financial counselling services (e.g. Helpline services).	10A, B, C, E, F, G & L	Office of Fair Trading NSW	no	yes	yes	35000	Statewide
4.41	Mortgage Hardship Service	The service provides advice and assistance to people experiencing mortgage stress to reduce unnecessary home repossessions and evictions. Areas in NSW are targeted according to data relating to financial stress and mortgage defaults. Clinics are set up in these areas to enable people in financial stress to obtain advice and assistance at the earliest stage. This service also works closely with financial counsellors, who refer people to the service, working with solicitors to ensure people who are able to save their home can continue to make mortgage repayments. The service also works with family lawyers to assist people who might be in financial hardship following separation.	10J & L	Legal Aid NSW	no	yes	yes	500	Statewide
4.42	Homeless Outreach Program	The program provides advice and assistance to people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness in 3 regions of NSW. This program has established outreach clinics in key agencies delivering services (such as food and shelter) to people who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless. These clinics provide on-site assistance to people with legal issues that contribute to homelessness such as fines, debt, and other related issues that contribute to the cycle of disadvantage and homelessness. The homeless outreach solicitors also work with other support agencies to facilitate access to services that address non legal needs of clients.	10H, J & L	Legal Aid NSW	no	yes	yes	1000	Western Sydney, Mid-North Coast & Illawarra Shoalhaven
4.43	Nunyarra and Miruma - Residential Service	Provides non-custodial community based residential services for high risk offenders in the community (Malabar, South East Sydney), and residential services for women (Cessnock, Hunter/ New England). Interim accommodation is provided for a period between 3-6 months for these residents on parole or a community based order.	10G, A, B, C, F, J & L	Corrective Services NSW	no	yes	yes	95	South East Sydney & Hunter New England
6.6	Temporary Accommodation	Temporary Accommodation (TA) is an essential element of the homelessness service system, providing emergency accommodation for people who have nowhere safe to go. It also provides an important entry point for homeless people to enter the service system and access assistance to find a long term solution to their homelessness. The TA program is provided by the NSW Department of Family and Community Services (FACS), offering accommodation in low-cost hotels, motels, caravan parks and similar accommodation for a limited period. Clients presenting for TA are requested to attend a FACS office within 24 hours to be fully assessed for housing assistance and to ensure that their long-term needs are attended to. Clients are referred to support services if required.	10A, B, C, E, F & G	NSW Department of Family and Community Services	no	yes	yes	4500	Statewide
7.5	Private Rental Subsidy	Private Rental Subsidy is a medium-term solution to assist clients who have been approved for priority social housing to access affordable accommodation in the private market while waiting for a suitable social housing property. The subsidy makes up the difference between the amount the client pays in rent, and the reasonable market rent for a property comparable to social housing properties.	10G, A, B, C & L	NSW Department of Family and Community Services	no	yes	yes	2600	Statewide

3.14a & b	Provision of rental subsidy for people escaping domestic and family violence (Start Safely Subsidy Program)	This project contributes to addressing homelessness for people, including children, who have experienced domestic or family violence, improves their safety and reduce the length of time they spend in Specialist Homelessness Services. The project increases housing options for people who have experienced domestic violence by providing time limited financial assistance in the form of a Start Safely subsidy so that clients can access the private rental market. Start Safely is available state-wide. In addition, this project includes funding for a Youth Private Rental Subsidy - Hunter Demonstration Project which supports people aged 16 to 25 who are eligible for social housing, at risk of homelessness, experiencing domestic or family violence and are able, with integrated support, to live independently in the private rental market. To receive the youth subsidy, clients must be committed to engaging with education, training and/or employment and will continue to receive support from their provider as they transition towards independence.	10F, D, E, G, I, J & L	NSW Department of Family and Community Services	no	yes	yes	3000	Statewide
7.51	Private Rental Market Assistance	Private Rental Specialists work intensively with eligible clients to develop and enhance their capacity to access the private rental market and sustain a private rental tenancy. This includes brokering the establishment of individual private rental tenancies with local real estate agents and landlords, while ensuring support arrangements are in place to sustain the tenancy. Private Rental Specialists target clients who face substantial barriers—but who are assessed as being able to meet their short, medium or long term housing needs in the private market.	10L, A, B, C, F & G	NSW Department of Family and Community Services	no	yes	yes	400	Statewide
