

Specialised and trauma-informed legal services for victim-survivors of sexual assault

FEDERATION FUNDING AGREEMENT – AFFORDABLE HOUSING, COMMUNITY SERVICES AND OTHER

Table 1: Formalities and operation of schedule

Parties	Commonwealth Queensland
Duration	This Schedule is expected to expire on 30 June 2028 or on completion of final reporting.
Purpose	This Schedule will pilot the delivery of legal and non-legal services to victims and survivors of sexual violence to support their safe and informed participation in the justice system, guided by their own goals in their journey of recovery (the pilot). Through the pilot, Queensland will test a coordinated legal and non-legal service delivery model that is trauma-informed, victim-and survivor-centric, culturally safe, accessible and integrated with existing services. This includes trialling a Justice System Navigator function and supporting access to restorative justice pathways, as agreed in this Schedule at Attachment A. The pilot will also contribute towards the development of an evidence base about the use and impact of coordinated legal and non-legal services for victims and survivors to support future policy development and service delivery, and build sector capacity.
Interpretation	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A Justice System Navigator supports victims and survivors of sexual violence to access their chosen justice pathway; and for those who choose to pursue a criminal justice pathway, a justice system navigator is a trained support person who can advocate and provide support in initial and ongoing interactions with police, prosecutors, the court and related systems as the victim and survivor engages with the justice system. 2. Restorative justice is an alternative to traditional criminal justice responses that enables people who have been affected by a crime, including the person responsible, to communicate about the damage that has been caused and work together to repair it.
Estimated financial contributions	The Commonwealth will provide an estimated total financial contribution to Queensland of $2.353 m in respect of this Schedule.

Attachment A –Service delivery models

Queensland will pilot a coordinated legal and non-legal service delivery model that is trauma-informed, victim- and survivor-centric, culturally safe, accessible and integrated with existing services. This includes trialing a Justice System Navigator function and supporting access to restorative justice pathways, as outlined below.

State	Service providers	Service delivery models
Queensland	Caxton Legal Centre Youth Advocacy Centre YFS Legal Aboriginal Family Legal Services Queensland	To provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A Queensland-wide advice line to provide access to legal information and advice to adult and young (from age 10) victims and survivors of sexual assault, in addition to place-based support from a multi-disciplinary team to ensure a comprehensive and coordinated approach to support. • Justice system navigation by providing support to victims and survivors of sexual violence to navigate the justice system and be a consistent point of contact through that journey. • Advice about restorative justice options and support to participate in restorative justice processes.

Attachment B – Minimum performance reporting requirements

The reporting requirements in this attachment are the minimum performance reporting requirements. Changes may be made by agreement between the Commonwealth and Queensland Senior Officials (for example, the inclusion of jurisdiction-specific reporting requirements).

Information to be provided for each reporting period

General service delivery information

A statement about the operation of the service delivery model, including:

- the general utilisation, impact and effectiveness of the service
- the operation of the justice system navigation component of services
- the operation of the restorative justice pathways component
- how the service is operating in a trauma-informed, victim- and survivor-centric, culturally safe, and accessible manner (including for staff, clients and the community)
- collaborative arrangements with legal and non-legal support service providers, and
- referrals made (and to what type of organisations).

A minimum of three deidentified case studies, which should include at least one example each of:

- core legal service delivery
- justice system navigation
- services in relation to access to restorative justice pathways (where applicable).

Legal assistance and non-legal service and client data

The number and percentage of legal assistance and non-legal services delivered, disaggregated by service type, primary law type (or law type) (where applicable), and problem type (where collected).

The total number of clients who received assistance broken down into the following groups:

- women
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- children and young people (up to 24 years)
- older people (aged over 65 years or Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people aged over 50 years)
- people with disability
- people who are culturally and linguistically diverse¹
- people residing in rural or remote areas
- people who identify as Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, Asexual or with other diverse identities (LGBTQIA+) (where recorded)
- people in custody (where 'in custody status' is recorded), and
- people who are employed in sex work (where recorded).

Financial information

Breakdown of funding allocated to:

- the service providers to deliver services
- Queensland for program administration.

¹ Defined in the National Legal Assistance Data Standards Manual as "Those whose main language spoken at home is not English or require an interpreter/translator. It does not include Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as this is collected in a separate data category."
